Business Analyst | Reporting Specialist with Strong Analytical Skills | Driving Data-Driven Decision Making

About

I am a reporting professional with a keen interest in transitioning into business analysis roles. My experience in reporting has equipped me with a strong foundation in data interpretation, process understanding, and delivering actionable insights. I am passionate about leveraging these skills to support business operations and strategic decision-making. Currently, I am focused on expanding my expertise in business analysis methodologies and tools to contribute effectively to business services, operations, and analytics projects. I am eager to apply my analytical mindset and reporting background to help organizations optimize processes and achieve their goals.
